

Shawn Sapp

Shawn (Way) Sapp grew up in St. Louis, Missouri, until she moved to House Springs, Missouri in the 3rd grade. She was raised by Bob and Twila Way and has three beautiful sisters Kellie, Shannon and Dana. All four girls played sports all year around including softball, basketball, soccer and volleyball. A game of pick up basketball, softball, kickball and football was a staple at the Way household against all the boys in the neighborhood. Shawn graduated from Northwest High School in 1988.

Shawn played select softball for traveling teams from a young age which occupied the Summers and select indoor soccer in the Winters. In high school Shawn went on to letter in three sports which included softball, basketball and soccer. She was honored to be a co-captain and player of the 1986 Northwest State Championship in softball.

After high school, Shawn earned a Division I softball scholarship to the University of Columbia-Missouri where she went on to letter all 4 years for the Tigers as a starting first baseman. She was selected for the First Team, 1st Basemen "Big 8 Conference All-Tournament Team" in 1990, 1991 and 1992. Her other honors included "Most Improved Tiger" in 1991, "Missouri Tigers Leading Hitter" in 1992 batting .444, and "All-American Scholar Athlete" in 1992. In addition, she was proudly part of the 1991 National Collegiate Women's Softball Championship where the Missouri Tigers placed third. During the Summer months while in college, Shawn assisted Coach Jay Miller in conducting softball hitting and fielding camps consisting of 300-500 young players per camp for the Tigers.

Shawn is currently employed by Distinctive Dermatology in Fairview Heights, Illinois as a Surgery Coordinator and Scheduler for patients with cancer. In 2024, Shawn moved to Cedar Hill, Missouri with her husband Mike Sapp. They have a daughter, Tiffany Shae Sapp and a grandson, Trenton Michael Sapp. While awaiting retirement, she enjoys spending time with her family, golfing, fishing and lazy days by the swimming pool.
